THE LAST NIGHT OF THE LOSER!

Celebrate the end of a great year of B-squad by joining us for our usual end-of-the-year party! Bring $5 if you can to help cover the cost of food and prizes. Let's end the year right and be losers all summer long!

B-SQUAD

belong - believe - become

B-SQUAD is our regular youth group meeting which features modern worship music, exciting discussion, messages and media, opportunities to serve our community, and time for snacks and just hanging out. Students in grades 6-12 are invited to Join us any Wednesday night from 7- 8:30pm for worship, discussion groups, service opportunities, and munchies.

Your Favorite Celebrity's Dirty Secret

Nope. I don't have the latest scoop on who's dating a Jonas brother or what kind of trouble Lindsey Lohan is getting out of this week. I don't need to do any investigative journalism because every famous actor, musician, or athlete that you look up to has one thing in common: they're just people. And yet, for some reason, because these people are good at singing or throwing a ball or looking pretty, we give them amazing amounts of adoration. We even seek out their opinions on what to buy and what to wear; even what to think and believe. We're in the last month of the "year of the Loser," and if you don't get anything else out of our time together this year, remember this: Jesus' vision for the best kind of life looks a lot different than the one we see on TV. Jesus says give away, don't hoard. Do for others, not yourself. Trust God, not your feelings. Romans 5:1 says, "By entering through faith into what God has always wanted to do for us—set us right with him, make us fit for him—we have it all together with God because of our Master Jesus." If we want to share in Jesus saving love, we have to share in his lifestyle of self-giving and devotion to God. That's all. You don't have to trust me, but you certainly should trust the rich and powerful either. Trust God and see how God makes sense of this messy and confusing life.

Sr. High Lock Out

Hey! Clear your schedule! Take the night off work - because there won't be a better night to have fun with your friends for a long long time! We're getting together with some neighboring churches to take over the Maple Grove Community Center, the Cinema Grill, and Brunswick Zone for a whole night of awesome. Signup will be available on the CRUMY board now! Cost: $35
